The 2013/2014 school year

During the summer months, the Sisters prepare for the upcoming school year as well as for the various summer camps at which we will be assisting. We will also be undertaking many of the larger projects which we were not able to complete during the busy school year – repainting classrooms, repairing fences, cleaning and organizing storage areas, etc.

*The Congregation celebrates several of its patronal feasts during this time of year:
St. Mary Magdalene (July 22), St. Martha (July 29) and St. John Vianney (August 9).*

Sts. Mary Magdalene and St. Martha are the patrons of the active and contemplative life. Our Congregation is not purely active, nor purely contemplative, but rather a “vita mixta”, a mixed life. Hence we pray to these two saints to acquire the spirit of the “vita mixta”.

St. John Vianney is the patron of parish priests. The Sisters pray to him for assistance in their work of assisting the clergy in the parish life.
